

PEOPLE

American Red Cross Emergency Notifications

If you don't give your parents and/or adult children copies of the rest of the binder, make sure they have this page in their own records.

Service Member's Command Information

Service Member's Military Command:

Emergency Contact Number:

Installation:

American Red Cross Emergency Notifications

In case of a family emergency that may warrant the military member being granted emergency leave or returned from an overseas location, the family will need to initiate an emergency notification, often called a Red Cross Message.

By telephone: 1-877-272-7337

Online: <https://www.redcross.org/get-help/military-families/emergency-communication.html>

You will need to know:

- Service member's full legal name:
- Rank/rating:
- Branch of service (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard):
- Social Security number or Date of Birth:
- Name of military unit:
- Military unit address:
- Name of immediate family member experiencing emergency (spouse, parent, child, grandparent, grandchild)
- Nature of the emergency:
- Contact information for verification, such as hospital, funeral home, or doctor's office: